

A Team of ATMA, Zunheboto District of Nagaland visited ICAR-NRC for Orchids, Pakyong, Sikkim

A team of ATMA members comprising of Eleven members, one progressive farmer of ATMA, Zunheboto District of Nagaland and three members of ATMA, Pakyong Sikkim, have visited ICAR NRC for Orchids, Pakyong, East Sikkim on 01-08-18. Dr. D.R. Singh, Director welcomed the participants and interacted with them. During the interaction, He emphasized the importance of various issues of Agricultural, Horticultural and Floricultural field in connection with the policies and Schemes of government for doubling farmer's income. Further he explained the prospects and importance of orchids in India and global level. During the field visit, Mr. R.K. Pamarthi, Scientist, mentioned the importance of the management aspects of Orchid Germplasm and breeding value. Sh. Ajay Bhusal (Technical Asst.), explained the potential and importance of Orchid Cultivation.

Field visit of Participants