

Celebration of Constitution day in ICAR-NRCO, Pakyong

On November 26, 2019, we the staff at ICAR-NRCO, Pakyong celebrated 70th anniversary of adoption of Indian Constitution. Nodal officer Sh. Bharath Kumar Alam welcomed the gathering of the programme followed by Directors' inaugural address. Dr. D.R. Singh (Director, ICAR-NRCO) detailed about the formation of Indian constitution and the ways by which every citizen should honour and follow our Constitution for smooth exercising of our rights and duties. He also listed out the subsequent activities of Constitution Day celebrations culminating in 'Dr. Ambedkar Jayanti' on 14.11.2020. It was followed by reading of 'The Preamble of Indian Constitution by all staff members at 11:00 am. We have displayed standees in the Institute premises and distributed flyers on Fundamental duties of citizens among the staff and nearby community. At 3:30 pm, Dr. L.C. De gave a talk on Indian constitution and fundamental duties of Citizens. A total of 30 participants attended this programme.

