

Celebration of Constitution day in ICAR-NRCO, Pakyong

On November 26, 2020 we the staff at ICAR-NRCO, Pakyong, have celebrated 71th Anniversary of adoption of Constitution in India. Nodal officer Bharath Kumar Alam inaugurated the programme then followed by Institute Director speech. Dr. Rampal (Director^(Acting) ICAR-NRCO) gave a speech on how Indian constitution is formed and how every citizen in India should honor our Constitution and follow it for smooth exercising of our rights and duties. Then followed by reading of 'The Preamble of Indian Constitution by all staff members at 11:00 am led by our Honorable Prime Minister. We have displayed banners in Institute premises. At 2:15 pm in the afternoon all the staff are requested to attend webinars conducted by ICAR on Constitution awareness. A total of 20 attended this programme by adhering to social distancing norms. With this celebration of Constitution day ended Successfully.

Pic 1: Constitution day banner is displayed at the institute entrance gate.

Pic 2: Institute Director's speech on Constitution Day.

Pic 3: All the attendees participated in reading The Preamble of Indian Constitution.

Pic 4: Institute staff on Constitution Day.